

The Minnesota Literacy Council (MLC) is proud to announce the publication of our 21st annual journal of writing and art work by adult learners in Minnesota:

Journeys: An Anthology of Adult Student Writing

This year's Journeys is the result of the dedication of our tireless interns, Jennifer Sellers, Heidi Thulin, and Jennifer Fielke, who donated hundreds of hours of their time. We think you will agree that the publication is both pleasing to the reader and useful for teachers as a classroom tool.

As you may already know, the cost to produce and distribute Journeys is now completely paid for through books sales. See the order form below for pricing and other ordering information.

The books have arrived from the printer and we're accepting orders now. Interested individuals and ABE programs who would like to order copies to distribute to their learner-authors and to their teachers for use in classrooms should go to the MLC web site at:

www.theMLC.org/Order_Journeys_online

You'll have the option to pay online using your credit card or bank account, or you can use the online form to place your order for later payment. Also, if you prefer, you can fill in the form below and submit it to the MLC via mail or fax.
